

Obituary

Born: Saturday, July 7, 1956

Died: Monday, November 26, 2012

Douglas- Winfield S. "Win" Dix, 56, of Roslyn Rd died Mon. Nov. 26 from injuries sustained in a hunting accident. He is survived by his wife of 24 years Patricia (Bombara) Dix; 2 sons Kasey B. Dix of Douglas and Ryan R. Poulin and his wife Mindy of Northbridge; "Poppa" has 2 grandchildren, Jayten and Camren; his parents Eugene C. and Ann (Schuster) Dix of Sun City SC; a sister Sandra Jack and her husband TJ of Greenville, RI; a brother Wendell S. Dix and his wife Deanna of Howell NJ; aunts, uncles, nephews and nieces. Born in Worcester on July 7, 1956 he lived in Douglas since 1977, previously living in New Jersey where he was a graduate of Princeton High School.

Mr. Dix worked in the maintenance department for Classic Envelope in Douglas the past several years. He loved working in his yard, whether it was tending to his garden or cutting wood for the stove. A family man, he loved having friends and family over for drinks and spending time by the fire sharing stories. He was always helping others, either by plowing them out in the winter or helping them with any repairs they needed. A lifetime hockey fan, Win loved the Bruins and was involved in coaching Kasey's youth teams in Burrillville and Auburn. He always looked forward to bird and deer season and being with his hunting buddies.

His memorial calling hours and celebration of his life will be held Sat. Dec 8 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Jackman Funeral Home, 7 Mechanic St. Douglas. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Comm. of MA Wildlands Fund, 251 Causway St. Boston, MA 02114-1590. To leave a condolence message for the family, please visit www.jackmanfuneralhomes.com
