Service Summary

- Service details not available -

Born in Worcester on March 8, 1963 she was the daughter of Dwight and Sandra (Bates) Fields. Belinda grew up in the Sutton/ Northbridge area and moved to Putnam, CT in 2000. Belinda attended Sutton High School and was primarily a homemaker. She loved taking pictures, was a coffee connoisseur, and had a passion for music and enjoyed listening to Elton John. She was a wonderful mother bringing up her beloved boys. She was a loving person with a bold and beautiful sense of humor that could make anyone laugh. She had nothing but love for everyone she met and although she underwent numerous health issues she still kept a positive demeanor. She'll will be sorely missed and her loving family will always keep a place for her in their hearts.
