Born on April 29, 1952 in Brooklyn, NY, Patricia was daughter of the late Wesley C. and Winifred R. (Reilly) Waite. She grew up and resided in Brooklyn, and was a graduate of Bishop McDonald High School. Continuing her education, Patricia went on to Business School later working as an accountant for NYU Lutheran Medical Center in Brooklyn for many years. In 2018, she moved to Douglas, MA to live with her sister Lorraine. Patti enjoyed spending time with her family and friends, and also going out to dinner for a great steak. Her sense of humor was unique and infectious, and if you were to ask any one of her nieces or nephews who their favorite aunt was, Aunt Patti would be the unanimous response.
